Wine

Wines we love. Wines we drink.
Producers with a story.

You won't find a hundred labels here; only bottles with character, balance, and a real sense of place. Some classic. Some a little wild. All chosen to work beautifully with food, friends, and long evenings.

We import a third of the list ourselves — bringing bottles to Berlin that you won't find anywhere else. Our list moves with the seasons, and we're constantly opening something new. Keep an eye on the board for limited bottles and tastings.

Ask us what we're excited about tonight.
