Welcome to Clan!

We bring together two traditions of small, shared dishes: Spanish tapas and Korean anju. In both cultures, food is made to be enjoyed together, often over a glass of wine or another drink.

We occasionally host concerts, pop-up dinners, wine tastings, and other events. Our space is also available for private events — just ask our team for more information.

To see what's coming up, check the blackboard or follow us on Instagram: @clandestino_berlin.

Wines we love. Wines we drink.

You won't find a hundred labels here; only bottles with character, balance, and a real sense of place. Some classic. Some a little wild. All chosen to work beautifully with food, friends, and long evenings.

We import a third of the list ourselves — bringing bottles to Berlin that you won't find anywhere else. Our list moves with the seasons, and we're constantly opening something new. Keep an eye on the board for limited bottles and tastings.
